* Affiliate Membership in Transportation California - Disclaimer Statement :

Affiliate Members of Transportation California (TC) are representatives of public or private entities who do not donate funds to TC operations, but share the organization's vision and objectives for enhancing California's transportation programs. Because these members share this larger vision and are in tune with TC's overall objectives doesn't necessarily imply support for all individual activities, policy decisions, or legislative positions undertaken by Transportation California.

We thank our Affiliate Members for their interest in the state's transportation policies. For our affiliates, Transportation California regularly shares important information, reports and studies about the condition of California's transportation infrastructure, maintenance needs and financial challenges, and we encourage them to disseminate this information to their members and/or other interested parties. As independent organizations who have an interest in the transportation program, but who pay no dues to Transportation California, their affiliation does not imply an endorsement of any position, policy decision or other action taken by Transportation California.
